

Philippe Errera

Director of Strategic Affairs, Ministry for Defence,
French Republic

High-Level Strategic Interview

How to consolidate the fight against terrorism?

Wednesday, 30th November 2016, 09:30 – 10:15 h

EDUCATION

Mr Errera is a graduate of the Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris (Sciences Po) and of the Ecole Nationale d'Administration (ENA, National School of Public Administration, 1994-1996)

CAREER

- April 1996: Appointed to the Ministry of Foreign affairs, Paris
- 1996-1998: Assigned to the Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP) division, Ministry of Foreign affairs, Paris
- 1998-1999: Intern at the US Department of State, Washington DC
- 1999-2003: First Counsellor French Embassy, Washington DC (March-May 2012, Auditor at the Institut Diplomatique et Consulaire, Paris)
- 2003-2006: Deputy Director of the Center for Analysis and Planning and Strategy (CAP), Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Paris
- 2006-2007: Assistant Director for Nuclear Disarmament and Non-Proliferation, Directorate for Strategic Security and Disarmament Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Paris
- 2007-2009: Advisor for Strategic and Multilateral Affairs, Minister's private office, Ministry of Foreign affairs, Paris
- 2009-2010: Chief of Staff to the Minister, Minister's private office, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Paris
- 2011-2013: Ambassador, Permanent Representative to NATO, Brussels
- 2013-2015: Director for Strategic Affairs, Ministry of Defence, Paris
- Since January 5th, 2015: Director General for International Relations and Strategy, Ministry of Defence, Paris